What | Beth:

We are seeking imaginative artists to deliver 3 playful, hands-on den-building workshops across North Powys this summer holidays. Each session will bring creative opportunities to rural communities during school holidays.

The artists will design and lead creative den-building sessions for children ages 4+ and their families, transforming ordinary spaces into extraordinary hideaways.

Ideas could include:

 Cardboard kingdoms

 Nature-inspired shelters

 Fabric & tarp hideouts

We're looking for artists who can:

 Spark creativity and encourage playful exploration

 Build safe, stable structures (even in spaces with no fixtures!)

 Adapt sessions for indoor and outdoor environments

 Blend art, design, and imagination into every build

We need you to:

 Help us source and transport materials (prioritising sustainable/low-cost ideas)

 Plan builds that are portable, flexible, and easy to assemble/disassemble

 Keep safety front and centre without killing the fun

These ideas are open to interpretation, and we welcome the artists own ideas too.

We encourage artists to apply together, but you are also welcome to apply individually. You can apply for one opportunity or both. Dates may be subject to change.
